

Ezekiel – week #3

2:-3:3

- The Lord (1:3) calls Ezekiel “ _____ ”
- As God speaks to Ezekiel the _____ enters him
- God tells him that he is sending him to a _____ people
- He also tells Ezekiel that whether they _____ or not they will know that a _____ has been among them
- In his vision, Ezekiel is given a _____ and told to _____ it
- On the scroll were written _____, _____ & _____ yet it was as _____ as _____ in his mouth

3:4-27

- a) 3:4 – he is told to go to the house of _____ and speak to them
- b) 3:7-9 – though they will not _____ to Ezekiel, God tells him that he will make his _____ as hard as theirs, and his _____ as hard as theirs and it will be as hard as _____
- c) 3:14-21 – the _____ lifts Ezekiel and takes him to the _____ by the river Chebar where he sits for _____ days causing great consternation among them, perhaps because he has gone there embittered in the _____ of his spirit and the _____ of the Lord was strong on him

At the end of the seven days the Lord tells him that he has appointed him as a _____ to the house of Israel. If Ezekiel fails to _____ the wicked man and the wicked man _____ in his sin, that his blood will be required at Ezekiel’s hand. If, however, the wicked man refuses to turn from his way, Ezekiel will have _____ himself as long as he has _____ the wicked man.

- d) 3:22-27 – Ezekiel is told to go to the _____ where _____ of the Lord is standing, which is the _____ glory he saw by the river Chebar. The Spirit tells him to shut himself up in his _____ and that his fellow Israelites will put _____ on him so that he cannot go among them. Furthermore, God said he would make his _____ cleave to the _____ of his mouth so that he could not speak until the Lord opens his mouth to say, “Thus says the Lord God, ‘He who _____, let him _____ and he who _____, let him _____’”.

With reference to God, we see the word _____ used in 1:28, 3:12 & 3:23 – why do you suppose this is so?

God calls his people _____ in 2:3, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 3:9 & 26